General Information:

The David West Memorial Scholarship is a $1,000 scholarship awarded to an outstanding collegiate journalist, attending one of the four colleges/universities located in Mercer County and who has demonstrated an interest in their student newspaper or news site.

The scholarship honors the memory of David E. West, a former Rhodes Scholar and long-time editor of the Trenton Times. During his lengthily career at the Times, David served as suburban editor, assistant city editor, assistant managing editor, managing editor and executive editor. He retired in 1975 and passed away in 1986. As part of her Will, his wife, Florence Block West, asked the scholarship be established upon her death. Mrs. West died in 2013.

This scholarship is open to all journalism majors and/or staff members of news publications at one of the four college/universities in Mercer County (Princeton University, Rider University, The College of New Jersey and Mercer County Community College). Students who received any New Jersey Press Foundation scholarship in 2017 are not eligible for the 2018 West Scholarship.

Applicants must deliver, via email, a copy of the application form and all attachments (see below) to parbitell@njpa.org by Friday, March 30, 2018 at 3 p.m. Applications will be judged by editors of New Jersey Press Association member newspapers under the direction of the New Jersey Press Foundation.
